

SOCIAL WORK, BS

The bachelor's degree in social work is accredited by the Council on Social Work Education. Its primary objective is to prepare students for beginning generalist social work practice.

The program prepares students for potential employment in both public (federal, state, and county) and private social service agencies. Students are trained to work and affect change among individuals, families, groups, organizations and communities. The program helps prepare students to engage in critical thinking and actively apply research to practice, policy, advocacy, education, and leadership. A sample of career possibilities includes caseworker, psychiatric social worker, youth counselor, and alcohol/drug counselor.

Preparatory Coursework

Based on individual placement results, some students may be required to complete preparatory coursework before enrolling in the courses listed here. This may include English language or composition preparation, developmental math, introductory chemistry, and/or student support courses for students participating in the First Year Bridge program.

General Education Requirements (GER)

UW-Milwaukee has General Education Requirements (<https://catalog.uwm.edu/policies/undergraduate-policies/#generaleducationtext>) that must be met in order to earn a bachelor's or associate degree. They include at minimum 30 credits (10 courses) in six categories that are designed to assure basic student competencies and provide a broad body of knowledge as a context for specialization.

Some degree requirements may fulfill GERs. Please review the requirements and consult with your academic advisor.

Major Requirements

The undergraduate social work major includes a pre-professional component. First-year students and sophomores may begin to take courses offered in the Helen Bader School of Social Welfare.

Students must complete at least 120 credits to obtain the degree. The major in Social Work requires a minimum of 61 credits in Social Work or Helen Bader School of Social Welfare courses (students can take courses in criminal justice and have them count toward the major as elective credit). The Department requires that students attain at least a 2.5 cumulative GPA, including transfer credits, in order to advance in the major. In addition, students must attain a 2.0 cumulative GPA in order to graduate from UWM.

Fieldwork

The field education sequence required for social work majors consists of two semesters of placement, beginning as early as the junior year. A total of 216 hours in the field is required each of the two semesters. The field courses are taken concurrently with the practice courses. Students are required to maintain a grade of B or better in each social work practice and field course. When a student does not, the student's academic progress is reviewed by the chair of the Social Work Department. In certain cases, the student may be referred to the Faculty Review Panel and may not be allowed to continue in the major.

For further information about fieldwork, consult the Field Staff Office, Enderis Hall, Room 1075, (414) 229-6526.

Degree Requirements

To receive the bachelor's degree with a social work major, the student must have an overall GPA (including non-UWM college work) of 2.0 and a total of 120 credits. At least 50% of the credits in the social work major must be earned at UWM. Social work students must complete at least one semester of field placement at UWM. Students must earn their last 30 credits at UWM.

Advancing to the Major

Social Work majors must be formally advanced to the major to begin field placement. This is an automated process that occurs through PAWS upon completion of the requirements listed below. Students who have not yet been advanced to the Social Work major are still able to take a sequence of Social Work courses. The requirements to be advanced to the Social Work major are:

- Completion of 48+ credits
- Completion of, or current enrollment in, SOC WRK 260, SOC WRK 270, and SOC WRK 306
- Cumulative GPA of 2.5 or higher, including all transfer work
 - If the student does not have a 2.5 GPA or higher, including transfer work, they must have a 2.5 GPA or higher in last 24 credits (of all coursework, not just Social Work courses)

All of these requirements must be satisfied to advance to the major, and students may appeal to be advanced if they fail to meet one or more of the requirements listed above. This should be done in consultation with an academic advisor in the Helen Bader School of Social Welfare.

Undergraduate Academic Advising

The Office of Student Services in the Helen Bader School of Social Welfare, located in the Northwest Quadrant Building D 3rd Floor, offers undergraduate student academic advising from professional advisors who are familiar with the Social Work and Criminal Justice & Criminology curriculum, College requirements, and university policies. Advisors can also provide information on scholarship opportunities, tutoring, and student organizations that align with a student's interests.

These advisors provide services such as new first-year student orientation, course selection, assistance with registration, and review of transfer credit. Students are assigned to a permanent professional advisor upon admittance into the Helen Bader School of Social Welfare and are encouraged to meet with their academic advisor at least once each semester. Please call (414) 229-4852 to schedule an appointment or for more information.

Transfer Students

The Helen Bader School of Social Welfare welcomes students from other academic areas on the UWM campus and students transferring to UWM from other institutions. Students planning to transfer into either major from another institution should meet with an academic advisor as soon as they are admitted and the transfer credit evaluation process has been completed. During this meeting, the student and advisor will review transfer course equivalencies, discuss program requirements, and create an academic plan for coming semesters. Students may meet with their advisor in person or by phone. Please call (414) 229-4852 to schedule an appointment or for more information.
